BJC Band Concert April 8

The Boise Junior college band under the direction of Mr. John H. Best, appears in the sixth annual home concert, April 8th. The concert, preceded by a tour of eastern Idaho, will be presented in the BJC auditorium—curtain time, 8:15 p.m. All BJC students and faculty are invited. Tickets are on sale for 50 cents at the general office.

Sixth Annual Band Tour and Concert Scheduled April 5

The Boise Junior college band, under the direction of John H. Best, will leave Thursday, April 5 on their sixth annual band tour. Their itinerary includes Mountain Home, Glens Ferry, Wendell and Twin Falls on Thursday, April 5. Friday they play at Jerome, Gooding, Shoshone, and end up in Sun Valley, Saturday.

The home concert will be held in the BJC auditorium Sunday, April 8 at 8:15 p.m. Tickets will be on sale this week at the general office, music stores down town or from any of the band students. Price for students is 50 cents.

The tour program will include a wide variety of music fashioned to fit any taste. Included will be the Andante from Beethoven's Fifth Symphony, The Sorcerer's Apprentice, The Great Gate of Kiev, and the popular Triumphal March from Quo Vadis. On the lighter side will be a Beguine by Osser and an arrangement of the spiritual Jericho by Morton Gould.

Soloists included on the program are trumpeter, Salvatore DiNello who will be heard in the first movement of Haydn's trumpet Concerto, Don Hancock will be heard with the band in Cubana by David Bennett. Flutists Marilyn Frazier and Duane Heindreich and clarinetist Dan Cantrell will join with the band in the first movement of Handel's Concerto Grosso in C.

The BJC student string quartet will be featured also on the tour. Members are violinists Ralph Purves, Don Hancock, Mark Griffin, and cellist Gary Hooper.

All students, faculty and their friends are invited to the home concert, April 8.

Video Club Forms Exec. Board News

The student executive board, in its last meeting discussed the student body elections, which will be held the 18th of April. There may be a primary election if four candidates run for each office, on April 11th, but there will be no campaigning until after April 11th. The petitions will start on March 27th and must be in by April 6th.

The board also has asked the Valkyries for permission to place in the trophy case a display received from Japan by the Interfaith Council.

The Polio Check Presented

The faculty, student body, and service clubs of BJC contributed $117.75 to the annual March of Dimes drive held in January.

The Intercollegiate Knights and the faculty are to be thanked for each contributing nearly half of the amount.

The I.K.'s with their "Peanuts for Polio", netted $53.00. The faculty contributed $51.50. The Valkyries, sister organization of the I.K.'s, gave $10 through candy sales.

Besides the money contributions, the Pi Sigma and the Valkyries were both active. The Valkyries, besides working with the Pi Sigma with the selling of miniature crutches down town, served at a March of Dimes luncheon.

Credit Essay Contest Walston Wins Trip

Mr. G. W. Underkofler reminded students last week of the deadline of March 30th for the Retail Credit Association of Boise's essay contest on "The Wise Use of My Credit in Boise."

Mr. Underkofler said to date the number of entrants has been less than the number of prizes offered and urged all students who plan to participate to submit their entries soon as possible.

The contest rules state: (1) the essay must not have less than 500 words and not more than 800 words; (2) quotations may be used but proper credit must be given; however, the essays will be judged on originality and aptness of thought; (3) the committee requests all papers to be either typewritten or in ink; (4) closing date will be March 30th; (5) all essays become the property of the Retail Credit Association, Inc.; (6) judging will be done by members of the association with final decision resting with the committee.

Separate contests are being conducted on the high school and college levels with duplicate prizes being awarded.

The list of prizes released include: first place, $100.00 saving bond; second place, $50.00 saving bond; third and fourth places, $10.00 cash, and fifth place, $5.00 cash.

In addition, local merchants are awarding a number of merchandise prizes.

Walston Wins Trip

Rod Walston, ASB president, received a telegram Friday noon advising him that he had won first place in an essay contest sponsored by the Association of International Relations clubs. The prize is a trip to Europe this summer and he has been asked to come back to Philadelphia April 4 to receive the award.

Competition for the award was on a nation-wide basis and the 2500 word essay was on some phase of the general topic, "A World Safe for Mankind—Decision U. S. A."

He does not know when the trip to Europe is scheduled.

Faculty Potluck Dinner

One of the several potluck dinners held every year in the Student Union was attended last Saturday night by approximately 60 faculty members and their wives or husbands.

Entertainment was provided by members of Delta Psi Omega, and included: Ed Fordham, master of ceremonies; Lee Horning, singing her rendition of "Five Foot Two", and "Frankie and Johnnie," accompanied by Dan Cantrell on the piano; and Don Hancock who did the Charleston; John Larsen played the guitar while Bob Kellogg, on the bongo drum sang "Similau"; and Jackie Rivett gave a reading entitled, "The Waltz."

Consult anyone, even if it be your own knees. (Two heads are better than one.)

Deadline for INCS

The following students have incompletes for the first semester 1955-56. They must be made up before March 28 or the grade of F will be placed on the student's record.

Debate Team News

With Ron Barton serving as moderator, Neil Scott and Jerry Weston, coached by Mr. Harold Wennstrom, appeared at the weekly meeting of the Optimist club last Tuesday to demonstrate the Town Meeting technique of debating.

Their topic was, "Is Current Criticism of the American System of Education Justified?"

Mr. Wennstrom said the BJC debaters gave this debate at the request of the club and that it was what they delivered at the eighth annual meeting at Portland State college.

Draper's DRIVE

Grass roots politicians are scurrying anxiously through these hallowed halls, smiling amicably, shaking hands frantically and trying in all ways to endear themselves to their constituents.

The reason for this zeal is the formation of a Young Democrat-Young Republican club.

Each of these young hand-pumpers have visions of growing up to be a senator, a governor, or a president. And until they realize the futility of their dreams, we fellow BJCsites have to suffer.

They stop you in the halls, corner you in classrooms, and drive you from the smoking porch with their incessant talk of politics, economics, and the need for a mandatory literacy test for school teachers. There's no escape from them—they're everywhere.

But in all fairness, we must admit that they serve a valuable function by pointing out valid reasons for joining the political union.

In the first place, the political union will give you a chance to be heard. If you have something to say, anything, say it at a political meeting. And no matter how inane it is, it will probably make more sense than what they have been talking about.

In the second place, it gives you a chance to express your opinion. Let people know whether you're a Republican or a Democrat. If you're a Democrat go to the meetings of the Democrats and cheer; if you're a Republican go and stare in stony-faced, disapproving silence.

The Political Union also gives you a chance to ask the government for something. If you're a farmer you can ask for increased farm subsidies; if you're a teacher, you can call for a raise in wages; if you're a veteran, you can ask for an increase in your GI check; and you're a Safeway employee you can demand the abolishment of green stamps.

Another function of the Union is education. With the fast pace and wordiness of modern-day politicians, it is difficult to know which candidates stand for what. By attending meetings of the Political Union, you can discover whether it's the Democrats of the Republicans who favor a three-minute egg; which party stands for socialized medicine, lower taxes, more gravy for the Idaho potato, and more peanuts in peanut butter and peanut brittle.

You can find out about local issues, too. You can find out which candidates want to do away with meat loaf in the Student Union; restrict airmen to only half the chairs in Morrison hall; limit pinocle playing to 16 hours a day; and require college professors to use words we can understand.

And you can learn things from politicians. You can learn how to speak beautifully without saying anything, to make fabulous promises one month and forget them the next, to evade the issue, to kiss babies, to look benevolent when hit in the face with a ripe tomato.

You can learn a lot from politicians.

But, seriously, the Political Union is a good idea. It can do a lot of good for BJC and for its members.

So how about coming to the meetings? I'll be there, how about you?

Campus Visitor

Mrs. Ada P. Burke, coordinator of student activities at Ventura Junior college, California, arrived in Boise last Saturday and yesterday was a visitor on the BJC campus.

She met with the AWS yesterday and in the afternoon from 3:00-5:00 p.m. was honor guest at a tea in Morrison Hall given by Mrs. Turnpseed for faculty members and wives.

Mrs. Burke was on the BJC faculty and administration for 15 years prior to her resignation last September. She joined BJC in 1940.

Add Improvements

High on the list of proposed improvements to be made at BJC is a driveway in front of the new gymnasium. It will run in a semi-circular pattern from Bellevue street past the old gym, up to the concrete apron in front of the new gym, and re-enter Bellevue street between the woodworking shop and the sheet metal shop. Plans call for a surfaced roadway 40 feet wide with a concrete curb on the side next to the gym.

As part of a general improvement project this drive will give access to parking areas on both sides of the new gym. These areas will eventually include surfaced parking lots between the gym and the stadium.

SPRING FORMAL BRINGS TOP NAME BAND TO BJC APRIL 9th

Jerry Gray and His "Band of Today" To Be Featured at BJC Gym April 9th

The well-known Jerry Gray and his 18-piece orchestra, the first name band for a BJC dance, will be featured at the spring formal, Monday, April 9th, 8:00 p.m. to midnight, in the new gymnasium. Ticket price is $2.50 per couple and $1.00 per person for student spectators.

Gray was a noted arranger for the late Glenn Miller. Some of his more renowned arrangements are: In the Mood, String of Pearls, Pennsylvania 65000, and Sun Valley Jump. After Miller's fatal mishap in 1944, he assumed command of both the band and the band. Since then Jerry Gray and his "Band of Today" have mostly provided background music for recording studios, vocalists, and vocal groups, not to mention the many miles the band has traveled for personal appearances throughout the land.

Gray's own conception of the real sound in music is a "rich-bodied orchestration, featuring resonant reeds on the slow pieces and hard-hitting deep-driving basses on the rhythm numbers."

Members of the joint social-alumni committees, who are sponsoring the spring formal, are completing elaborate preparations, and it is their hope that a dance of this type will become a tradition if their initial attempt proves successful. The dance will be especially open to the alumni because of the feeling that they will be proud to participate in this extension of our special program.

Members of the committees, among the many, are: Cheri Belveal, Clarence Harper, Rita Riddle, Loren Hicks, and Mrs. Max Bell.

Tickets are on sale at the information window in the main office. The formal is open to all students who possess an activity card, or a past student who held an activity card, and members of the faculty.

"Cotton Swing" Scheduled April 28

Girls... be sure to circle April 28th on your calendar. Why? It is the date set by chairman Jackie Rivett for the annual Cotton Swing. It is a girl-ask-boy affair and will be held in the Student Union ballroom.

With the theme "April in Paris" in mind, the committees are busily working to prevent last minute rushes.

Tickets will be sold all during the week of April 23-27 in the main hall of the Administration building and also in the Student Union during the noon hours.

This dance will officially bring spring to the BJC campus so, girls... bring out your cottons and ask that guy! This promises to be one of the best dances this year.

Both are very pre-occupied from now until the production in April you will see all details of Julius Caesar cast wearing their hair long. Hair is also cut after the play. Evening rehearsals have started at 7:00 o'clock to 10:30.

Meet "Joan"

Joan is a graduate of Boise High school. She is a freshman enrolled in a general curriculum.

She is in B-Cubes, French club, Phi Theta Kappa, the First Christian church organization on the campus. She also works on the Les Bois. Another interest of Joan's is learning to play the piano. "I am trying my darnedest to learn to play more than just 'Chopsticks' (two finger style) on the piano. If I don't, it will not be because my instructor, Carroll Meyers has not tried his hardest."

"I love to dance, try to sing, and enjoy sewing. When I am feeling moody I like to walk and walk and walk," she said.

Sports . . . Joan likes to play tennis. She would rather watch basketball than any other sport. "Right now I'm in the process of drowning once a week in life saving class," she remarked.

She likes Jackie Gleason's mood music best of all. Also . . . "Suddenly There's a Valley" sung in French. "I can't understand much of it, I just like to listen to it," she said.

Pet peeve . . . words, words and words! Any type, any size.

When asked if she read much, she said, "I read 'Pogo' and I will defend him until my dying day."

Next year, she plans to go to OSC at Corvallis. She is going to take a basic course of sciences. After graduation from OSC she wants to go to Stanford University to finish a course in physical therapy.

Just amassed will make a mountain. (Great oaks from little acorns grow.)

Chatburn Appointed Committee Member

Mr. Axel Chatburn, head of the BJC education department, has accepted an offer to become a member of the state textbook and improvement of instruction committee.

This committee meets twice each year. The first meeting is in late spring or early summer, and second meeting will be held in December prior to the State Board of Education meeting. Its work is to investigate and to improve the teaching standards and to suggest ways or textbooks to help certain courses.

He was appointed to the post by the State Board of Education.

FTA Travels

The BJC chapter of FTA is sending delegates to the annual Idaho State Educational Association meeting to be held April 13-14 in Pocatello.

The local group is affiliated with the state board and representing this college are Bob Watts, Bob Hanson, Betty Link and Sharon Newman. Miss Newman was newly elected in a special meeting held last Tuesday, March 20.

Also attending will be the president of the college chapter, Ron Engle, who holds the office of vice-president of the state FTA association.

An evil act runs a thousand miles. (Bad news has wings.)

Lois North will lead the regular Wednesday morning Devotional with a dramatic reading tomorrow at 9:50 a.m. in the auditorium.

Teacher of the Week

By Patty Busing

Boise Junior college secretarial sciences instructor and teacher of the week, Mrs. Dorothy Lee, was born and raised in Lincoln, Nebraska. She attended school at University of Nebraska, University of Denver, and College of Idaho.

Various secretarial jobs followed her graduation from college. Working eight years in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, she held several positions. Among these were secretary for the Yates Rubber Co., Chevrolet Motors, and a civil service research job at the University of Pittsburgh. Mrs. Lee also taught two years at the Robert Morris School of Business in Pittsburgh.

Moving about the country a great deal, she spent three years in Baton Rouge and went to the French quarter of New Orleans where she had a part interest in a small art shop.

Having come to BJC in 1954, Mrs. Lee teaches typing, accounting, arithmetic, and night classes of shorthand and typing. Of BJC she stated, "Oh, I think it's wonderful." As the reason for choosing the teaching vocation, she said, "I enjoy working with people."

Mrs. Lee told of what she considered her greatest faux pas. While connected with the Roger Babson School of Business, she was welcoming guests at a party for Roger Babson. Each guest was supposed to have a name card and when one gentleman showed up without his, she insisted he get it. Much to her chagrin, she discovered the man was Roger Babson himself.

Her special interests include boating, swimming, and fishing. She remarked that her enjoyment of fish ended with the catching of them. "I guess I just like to sit in the sun," she laughed.

Judges Travel

Dr. Gardner, Mr. Schwartz, Mr. Hansen and Mr. Wennstrom are to be judges at the Idaho State High School Organizational Speech tournament to be held March 29th at Buhl, Idaho. They will leave Boise March 28th.

ARKANSAS STATE GAME

Bad luck paid BJC's Broncos a visit last week in the National JC tournament held at Hutchinson, Kansas, and handed Boise two straight defeats after the Broncos had won their opening game against Arkansas State, 70-57.

Nick Panico swished the nets for 17 points during the first half and paced the Broncos to their victory over the Minutemen of Arkansas St.

Boise's representatives in the National tournament came back in the second half and gave the Broncos a scare as they closed the score to 44-43 at one point, and 50-49 at another, but the two Boise guards, Don Moore and Jim Nall, hit on lay-ins and long shots to give the Broncos a safe lead. From then on Boise pulled away from Arkansas, despite a full court press defense thrown up by the Minutemen.

Panico paced Boise with 25 points, followed by Moore with 22 and Nall with 10. Leading Arkansas's losing cause was guard Marc Wilson, who scored 19, followed by center John Matlock with 15.

MOBERLY GAME

Defending champions Moberly handed the Broncos defeat number one in the quarter finals Wednesday by the slim margin of 52-51. The Greyhounds, who have taken the title for the past two years, went into the game a heavy favorite, but had to fight down the wire to claim the victory.

Moberly led at halftime 24-23 and then fell behind Boise. With 10 minutes left BJC led 43-36, but the Greyhounds knotted the score up at 44-44. Fitzgerald pushed the Broncos back into a 54-50 lead but then reserve guard Joe Gammershien let fly with a 20-footer with only nine seconds left to play and the victory went to Moberly.

Don Callahan led the Greyhounds with 16 points, followed by Dave Ratchko with 19. Boise's leading scorer was Hill who scored 15 and was followed by Fitzgerald with 14 and Panico with 12. Moberly won its first game Tuesday, beating Eastern Arizona 80-67.

Kilgore Rangers Cop JuCo Title

Hannibal-LaGrange's Trojans took a quick 10-point lead in the first half of the championship game, but the Rangers of Kilgore fought back to tie the score up at halftime, 41-41, and then moved ahead in the second half to capture the NJCAA title at Hutchinson Saturday night, beating the Trojans 68-65. Kilgore moved into the finals by dumping Moberly 68-61 and Hannibal-LaGrange beat Pueblo in the semi-finals 82-81.

For Hannibal-LaGrange it was the second year in a row they failed to win in the final round. Last year they lost to the Greyhounds of Moberly 71-64.

Moberly took the consolation game, beating Pueblo 72-66.

Twenty-two forestry and wildlife majors met recently to found the BJC Forestry club. Organized for students who plan careers in forestry or fish and wildlife management, the group plans to affiliate with the Western Forestry Club Association at an early date. Chairmen of the different committees forecast an active organization, which will show films and invite outstanding speakers in related fields. Officers are: Forrest Osborne, president; Don Wilson, vice president; Rex Johnson, secretary; and Jon Soderblom, treasurer. Faculty advisors are Dr. O. J. Obee and Dr. Dan Bonnell.

Broncs Host East Oregon Mounties In Opening Baseball Game Friday

Baseball officially opens Friday, weather permitting, as the battling Broncos host the Mountaineers of Eastern Oregon on the BJC diamond. Saturday the same two teams meet again at Boise.

For the last two weeks Coach Smith has been working the team hard in search of a starting lineup. Like the football and basketball squads, the baseball team is composed mostly of freshmen so the Broncos will be going up against seniors Friday with mostly fresh. Only returning lettermen from last year are Ron Zarbinsky, Roy Garland, Stan Jackson, Dale Chatterton and Wally Waters. There are plenty of candidates out for each position and if the play improves as it has in the last two weeks well, then the Broncos will be a team to be reckoned with in or out of conference play.

Conference play opens the 10th of April at Nampa with a doubleheader with the Crusaders. The Broncos then host Weber for the road to play Rocky and return home to meet NNU again.

All home games will start at 7:30 for single games, and 1:30 when a doubleheader is scheduled.

GRACELAND GAME

Graceland JC of Lamar dealt the coup de grace Wednesday night and eliminated BJC from the tournament, winning 58. Both teams had already won one game, Moberly beat Boise, Graceland lost to Kilgore. Graceland played New York City Saturday night in the battle for fourth place, and lost 77-70.

Boise stayed with the 14 jackets the entire game but held on to the lead once a second half, 43-41. Graceland on to a slim 29-28 halftime and added 34 more in the second half to claim the victory. The Broncos were able to score 30.

Boise's losing cause was caused by forward Ron Fitzgerald kept the Broncos in the game. 15 points, nine field goals and five free shots. Daryl Hill and Nick Panico was the leading Bronco with 12. Four low jackets paced the losing cause. Jack Gilbert with 11, Gary Nussman with 11, Griffin with 11 and Nall with 11.

BJC students are asked to use the tennis courts in the Davis park between the hours of 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. because the courts are reserved for high school use. First, Junior II S. make sure the Boise school did contribute to their upkeep. Their students can have the use.
